

Presenting: An Extreme Adventure

Sept 25th 2007, 7pm in Parkville, MO

5 years & 5 months • 160,000 miles • 75 countries

Sjaak is back in KC to show you the world as seen from the seat of his Yamaha R1

R1 goes Extreme in the Sahara

Let Sjaak Lucassen entertain you with slides, videos and humorous tales of his world-wide adventure that will appeal to anyone with an interest in travel, not just motorcyclists. See him:

- Traverse the Sahara Desert
- Cross world's biggest & highest dry salt lake in Bolivia
- Cross a river in a dugout canoe
- Emerge from the mud in civil war-torn Congo
- Travel the Road of Bones in Russia
- Arrive in Panama on a Columbian drug boat
- Fall in love in Venezuela
- Travel 2-up through China

Be amazed by adventures throughout Europe, Africa, The Americas, Asia and The Middle East

When: Tuesday, September 25th 7:00 PM – 11:00 PM or later (arrive early to meet Sjaak)

Note: Don't be late or you'll miss his exciting adventures in Africa!

Where: American Legion Hall, 11 Main Street, Parkville, MO

Food: Dinner and Drinks available from the American Legion (please support them)

Cost: FREE Admission

Souvenirs: T-shirts, Hats, Patches and Postcards available

This is a rare opportunity. Don't miss Sjaak's only presentation in the U.S.A.!

* Read more at www.r1goesextreme.com